

Weddings

Amy Cheek, Class of '03, married Nic Pfof (below). She and her husband live in Jackson, TN. Amy graduated from Union University in December 2006 and currently works for "The Jackson Sun."

Devin Powers, Class of '06, and Brittany Metrin, Class of '06, (below) were married on May 26, 2007. The bride and groom are living in Houston and attend Champion Forest Baptist Church. Devin is employed by Bank of America and Brittany is employed at the 249 Animal Emergency Clinic. They plan to attend Tomball College in the fall.

Activities/Accomplishments

Eric Vento, Class of '05, (below) is a junior at Sam Houston State University and plans to graduate by August, 2008. This summer, he is serving as a Freshman Orientation Leader and remains active in the Student Government Association as a Senator and the Criminal Justice Caucus Chair. He just returned from a study abroad trip to Italy, where he learned about the criminal justice system in that country.

Kyle Stewart, Class of '05, is a junior at Baylor University studying Mechanical Engineering. He is active in Campus Crusade for Christ and participated in a mission trip to Chiang Mai, Thailand.

Kerrie Nelson, Class of '06, (below) enjoyed her first year on the softball team for LeTourneau University. She will return next year to continue pursuing her major in Kinesiology. She would like to either become a coach or go into Physical Therapy. This summer, Kerrie will be working for The Salvation Army Boys and Girls Club.

Lindsay Ehrhardt, Class of '05, (below) is pursuing a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Theatre Performance at Baylor University. She has appeared in the Baylor Theatre Main Stage Production of "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead" as a Court Attendant and member of Fortinbras' Army; appeared in "Moon Over the Brewery" as Miriam, a production of Baylor Theatre's midsummer season of plays; performed in numerous theatre workshop scenes such as "Medea," "Words, Words, Words," "Much Ado about Nothing," and "The Fantastiks." In addition, Lindsay is the secretary of Baylor Theatre Student Society; a member of "Guerrilla Comedy Troupe" performing comedy and improvisation at campus and community events; serves as a Small Group Leader for Welcome Week and is on the Dean's Academic Honor Roll.

Ashley Jenkins, Class of '05, is pursuing a Pre-Nursing major at Sam Houston State University. She hopes to enroll at either UT Houston or Texas Women's Nursing School in the spring.

Jennifer West Nelson, Class of '00, and husband Jeff have moved back to Texas from Denver. They recently bought a house in Frisco, a suburb of north Dallas. Jennifer is working as a freelance writer for a few different publications in the Dallas area, as well as doing some copy-editing for a magazine in Denver. Also, they recently celebrated their second wedding anniversary!