HOW PARENTS CAN HELP THEIR CHILD ACHIEVE MORE

Parents are really coaches, yet many parents do not really understand how to relate to the athlete that lives in their home. Bruce Brown has been a coach for over 35 years and has five daughters. His insight into the role of parents in athletics will impact your life and relationship with your children for years to come. No matter the age of your student or what activities, sports or fine arts, they are involved in, you will benefit from this evening with Bruce Brown.

EACH ATTENDEE WILL RECEIVE TWO BOOKS WRITTEN BY BRUCE BROWN
The Parents Role in Athletics & Life Lessons for Athletics
