

Reading Takes You Everywhere

Whether you're going on summer vacation, or relaxing at home, spend time reading as much as you can. Here are some ideas of places to read to make reading even more fun! Place an X in each box that you complete, then turn in the sheet to earn a prize when you return to school in August. I'd also love a picture of you reading in your favorite place! You can email it to Amy.Mitton@CypressChristian.org, or have a 4x6 picture made and send it in with your completed reading incentive.

in the car	at the pool	under a tree	on a lawn chair	in a comfy chair	in the closet on a swing	on the grass	on the couch	on your bed	at the playground	in the backyard at someone else's house	upstairs	downstairs	on a pillow	inside an indoor tent	on a picnic with a flashlight at night	under an umbrella	any place of your choosing	under the covers with a flashlight	leaning against a tree	on the sidewalk on a rug	at the kitchen table	by a window	in a sleeping bag	on your parents' bed	with a pet to a younger person	to an older person	with a friend	in the sun	in the shade	on a rainy day
