Senior Class Acknowledgement

Today as we come together for our senior graduation, racing emotions fill our minds as we recognize the uncertainty of this day. With all that has happened over the years, we realize just how fast high school can pass and the things we never appreciate can be taken for granted. Now, however, we realize how blessed we have been, not only by our hardworking teachers who persevered through this pandemic, but also our parents and coaches who have supported us to this moment and beyond. As we move forward, we cannot discount the memories and moments we have all shared in school and out.

Jumping into high school as eager freshmen, we had no idea what was to come. The joys, friendships, tears over failing grades, championship games, and so many other events made our four years in high school memorable. Our sophomore year began with Hurricane Harvey, and although it was a painful and scary time for everyone, it brought us closer and made us stronger for what was to come this year. As juniors, we looked forward to our senior year and all the things that came with it. Although this year was cut short, we are thankful for the memories we have made as a class, and we have now developed leadership skills and lifelong friendships with each other.

Through the years of challenging coursework at CCS, the faculty and staff have taken the initiative to go beyond their job descriptions to help us reach our academic potential and build our faith. The coaching staff mentored us both physically and academically; we acknowledge you for shaping us to persevere through adversity and celebrate victories. The Senior Class of 2020 will miss you, and we appreciate the safe environment you created for learning in classrooms, on stage and on fields.

To our parents, thank you for being our greatest supporters and teaching us about life through your example and courage which has allowed us to follow our dreams. Your strength has taught us to have faith in ourselves and others. Your constant love has prepared us for what the future holds, and without your commitment to us, we would not be who we are today. It is our wish to build a foundation with the many life lessons you provided. We want you to know how much we love and respect you, will sincerely miss your comforting home-cooked meals, and will never forget the times you brought our lunches when we left them at home.

Class of 2020, as we stand here as seniors one last time, we fondly look back on the memories we've shared together. As we anticipate the unique plans God has for each of our lives, we hold fast to one truth: that "we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them" (Ephesians 2:10 ESV).
